INTERNATIONAL ELECTION

Shawn Fain, has officially been declared the President, of UAW he was sworn at the Special Convention being held in Detroit, Michigan. Thank you to the members that participated and voted in this election.

NATIONAL NEGOTIATIONS

The National Contract Resolutions were approved by the Sub Councils. The next step is to present them to the National Bargaining Committee that will be negotiating our National Contract that expires September 15, 2023.

The National Strike Fund has increased to $500.00. Chuck Browning, Vice-President of the International Union wants us to be ready and prepared for these upcoming negotiations. He has negotiated several contracts with gains.

We need to prepare for trying times as these negotiations are approaching, also prepare yourselves and your family for the potential of a strike.

Our Union is as strong as the membership. It is time for us to stand United in Solidarity.

Community Service Standing Committee Clothing Drive

The Community Service Standing Committee will be hosting a clothing drive through April 15, 2023, to benefit Laura's Home and Crisis Center and the Men's Crisis Center. They will be collecting Spring and Summer Items as wells as feminine hygiene products, diapers, size 4/5/6, twin sheets and blankets are also needed.

In Solidarity,

WILMA G. THOMAS, PRESIDENT
